CADDLE

Mixing gasoline and nitro would make a pretty impressive explosion, though nothing like the high-powered alt-country sound delivered by these blue-collar boys from Birmingham, Alabama. Described as “Southern-fried alt-law country,” Caddle draws on classic country and bluegrass influences, then supercharges them with a hard driving rock n’ roll attitude.

Caddle has shared the stage with artists such as Billy Joe Shaver, Kid Rock, David Allan Coe, Lynyrd Skynyrd, Travis Tritt, Molly Hatchet, Jeffrey Steele, The Black Crowes, Jason Aldean, Dale Watson, 3 Doors Down, Webb Wilder, Cross Canadian Ragweed, Confederate Railroad and Delbert McClinton to name a few.

“Raise ‘Em High,” Caddle’s newly released album, took home Album of the Year at the 2007 Birmingham Music Awards. Taking notice is Sirius Radio’s channel 63 Outlaw Country station, which recently added three cuts from “Raise ‘Em High,” along with traditional radio spins all over the Southeast.

“Simply put, this is music from the bottom of the guitar – down, dirty and just plain loud... And it only gets better from there. Caddle is the band you want playing when you walk in the honky tonk, because they provide the perfect sound track for drowning or good old-fashioned bar fight.” said Mish Mash Magazine

It has been a long time since I’ve heard a solid, boot stomping album like this one, but Caddle is a band to keep your eyes on,” Gone Country Magazine review.

“I have seen over 4,000 bands in the past ten years here on Western Beat and Caddle is without a doubt in my top three,” said Billy Block of Western Beat Entertainment, Nashville, Tennessee.

With their busy tour schedule taking them all over the U.S., Caddle is not trying to change the world, just provide an escape from the daily grind with some Southern humor, hospitality and a hell-raising stage show that makes music lovers everywhere stand up and take notice.
